MEMORANDUM FOR THE DEPUTY TO THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE FOR THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY

SUBJECT: Review of National Intelligence

Reference: Memorandum, [REDACTED] dated 18 February
1975, subject as above.

1. Your new publication, the Review of National Intelligence, is most welcome as it represents the first official critical feedback on our new family of current intelligence products. The document has been reviewed with great interest and enthusiasm by the DIA editorial staff and all members of the current production elements.
2. A continuation of your efforts to evaluate community-wide substantive intelligence publications will prove most beneficial to this Agency and will greatly enhance its products.
3. It is requested that 40 copies of future issues of this publication be disseminated to DIA on a regular basis.
